YOU ARE BEING SUED
AND YOU ARE IN DANGER OF LOSING YOUR PROPERTY

The State of Connecticut Superior Court requires that this notice be sent to you about the residential foreclosure process. This is not legal advice. Please read it carefully.

It is important for you to learn about your options in foreclosure. There are government agencies, legal aid programs, and other non-profit organizations that you may call for information about foreclosure.

To protect your rights, you should speak to an attorney or go to the Foreclosure Clerk, Foreclosure Mediation Caseflow Coordinator or Court Service Center in the Court where your case was filed for information on what to do next. If you do not take action, you could lose your property.

File an Appearance (form JD-CL-12) at the Court where your case is pending. If you do not file an Appearance with the Court, you will not get important notices about your case AND the Court may make a decision (enter a default judgment) against you.

You should also work with your lender or other person bringing this lawsuit or, if this foreclosure involves your home, contact a HUD-certified housing counselor during this process.

If this foreclosure involves your home, you may be eligible for the Foreclosure Mediation Program. Information about the program is attached to these papers and is also available at any Superior Court Judicial District courthouse or on the court's website at www.jud.ct.gov/foreclosure.

To locate assistance near you, you may call the Connecticut Housing Finance Authority's call center toll free at 1-877-571-2432. Customer Service Representatives are available Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. You may also call 2-1-1 for other help.

PROCEED WITH CAUTION

You may be contacted by people offering to help you avoid foreclosure. Please follow these precautions:

1. Get legal advice before entering into any deal involving your house.
2. Get legal advice before paying any money to anyone offering to help you avoid foreclosure.
3. Do not sign any papers you do not understand.

How Foreclosure Rescue Scams Work. People in foreclosure are often the target of "foreclosure rescue scams." Be very careful of non-lawyers who ask you to pay a fee for counseling, loan modification, foreclosure prevention, or a "forensic audit" of your loan documents, regardless of their promises or claims. Many out-of-state attorneys target Connecticut residents: you should never pay attorneys that you do not meet. Contact the Department of Banking for more information at 1-877-472-8313 or visit www.preventloanscams.org.

Mortgage Crisis Job Training Program. The state-funded Mortgage Crisis Job Training Program is a project of The WorkPlace, Inc., in partnership with the Connecticut Housing Finance Authority (CHFA), Capital Workforce Partners, and Connecticut's workforce system. The Program helps homeowners increase their job skills and earning potential. It offers customized employment services, job training scholarships, financial literacy, and credit counseling. For information call 1-866-683-1682 or go to www.workplace.org/mortgage-crisis-job-training-program/.

Financial Assistance Programs. Connecticut's 12 Community Action Agencies (CAAs) help people meet immediate needs through services such as Eviction and Foreclosure Prevention, energy/heating assistance, food pantries, and weatherization. CAAs also empower people to improve their financial future through employment services, financial literacy training, and other programs. To locate your local CAA call the Connecticut Association for Community Action at 860-832-9438 or visit: www.cafca.org/our-network.

For more information on programs for homeowners facing financial distress, review the Department of Banking's materials on www.ct.gov/dob or call 1-877-472-8313. You can also call Info line at 2-1-1 for resources.

MEDIATION INFORMATION FORM

STATE OF CONNECTICUT

ADA NOTICE

The Judicial Branch of the State of Connecticut complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). If you need a reasonable accommodation in accordance with the ADA, contact a court clerk or an ADA contact person listed at www.jud.ct.gov/ADA.

The Court's Foreclosure Mediation Program is set up to help eligible homeowners and their lenders or mortgage servicers see whether they can reach a fair and voluntary agreement under the supervision of a neutral mediator employed by the Court. The program addresses all aspects of the foreclosure including any assistance options that may be available through the lender or mortgage servicer to help homeowners 1) keep their homes, or 2) gracefully exit from their homes by way of a short sale, deed-in-lieu of foreclosure, or negotiated sale date or law day.

The objectives of the mediation program are:

1. To determine whether the parties can reach an agreement that may allow the parties to either:
 - a. Stop the foreclosure by using programs available through the lender or mortgage servicer; or
 - b. Go forward with the foreclosure in a way that is acceptable to the homeowner and the lender or mortgage servicer.
2. To reach some agreement with reasonable speed and efficiency, with both parties participating in the mediation process in good faith, without unreasonable and unnecessary delays.

What you must do:

1. Fill out the Appearance form and Foreclosure Mediation Certificate. These forms are included in this packet. You must file them with the court no later than 15 days after the return date. The return date is printed on the upper right part of the Summons form in this packet. You do not have to come to court on the return date. The court cannot notify you of the date and time you must come for your first premediation meeting until you file these forms.
2. Mail a copy of the Appearance form and the Foreclosure Mediation Certificate to the Plaintiff's attorney at the address of the attorney or law firm on the Summons form, and to any other party who has filed an appearance in your case.
3. Start gathering documentation so that you will be prepared to meet with your mediator. Lenders typically request copies of the following documents:

Proof of Income

- Wage/Salary Income – Pay stubs covering the last 30 days.
- Self-Employment Income – Profit & Loss statement for the most recent quarter or year to date, signed and dated.
- Benefit Income – Most recent award letter (social security, disability, food stamps, pension, public assistance, adoption assistance).
- Rental Income – All leases with signatures.
- Alimony/Child Support – If you rely on this income to pay your mortgage, court order showing the amount of alimony and/or child support that you receive.
- Contribution Income – Contribution letters from all non-borrowers who are related to you and live with you, signed and dated by them, and proof of their income.
- Federal Tax Returns – Personal returns with all schedules for the last 2 years; copies of business returns, if applicable; copies of IRS tax filing extensions, if applicable.
- Bank Statements – Personal bank statements for the last 2 months and business bank statements for the last 4 months if self-employed. Must include all pages, bank logo, and account holder's information.

Other Information

- Most recent utility bill (gas, electric, or water).
- Most recent real estate property tax bill.
- Evidence of amount of homeowner's association dues/condominium fees, and whether current or delinquent.

- Homeowners' insurance declaration page.
 - Hardship letter – A letter, signed and dated by all borrowers, explaining what prevented you from making your mortgage payment, and indicating if the hardship is resolved.
4. Within 35 days from the return date, your lender or mortgage servicer will mail you a packet of forms, their list of required documentation, and other information about your loan or your property. A copy will also be sent to your mediator. Upon receipt of this packet, complete the forms provided, gather any additional documents on the list, and bring the completed forms, and other documents to your scheduled premediation meeting with your mediator. You can read more about this meeting in the next section below. Do not mail the completed forms and documents to the court.

The Mediation Process

If your return date is October 1, 2013 or later, the Foreclosure Mediation Program will consist of two stages:

- Premediation – During this stage, you will meet one-on-one with a mediator to review your financial information and to discuss possible options. If necessary, the mediator will help you complete forms and gather the documents required by your lender or mortgage servicer. The mediator may also refer you to other resources that can help you, such as the housing counseling agencies listed on the attached Notice of Community-Based Resources. You may have one or more meetings with the mediator, but premediation will end approximately 12 weeks from the return date on your Summons. At the conclusion of premediation, the mediator will ensure that your documentation is delivered to your lender or mortgage servicer or its attorney, and will determine whether mediation with your lender or mortgage servicer will be scheduled. If the mediator determines that mediation will not be scheduled, mediation will terminate. If mediation has been terminated, you may ask the Court to be included in mediation if you think the mediator has made a mistake or if you have had a change in circumstances. If the mediator determines that mediation will be scheduled, you will receive notice of the date and time of your mediation in the mail. The first mediation will be scheduled no later than 5 weeks from the date your forms and documentation are delivered to your lender or mortgage servicer, or its attorney.
- Mediation – If mediation is scheduled, you will meet with a mediator and a representative of the lender or mortgage servicer and its attorney to review any assistance options that may be available to you through your lender or mortgage servicer. Depending on your situation, you may be asked to submit additional documentation as part of the mediation process. By law, the representative is permitted to participate in mediation by phone as long as the representative is knowledgeable about your case and the types of assistance that may be available to you. If you are represented by an attorney, your attorney may appear for you after the first mediation as long as you are available to participate by phone. If you do not have an attorney and if there are 2 or more self-represented borrowers, then after the first mediation session, it is likely that only one of you will need to come to mediation if the other(s) are available to participate by phone.

Other information you should know:

The information you provide during the mediation process will be treated as confidential and will not be shared without your consent with anyone except your lender or mortgage servicer, its attorneys, and a court-employed mediator with the Foreclosure Mediation Program.

Before your premediation meeting(s) with the mediator, if you need help completing forms, gathering documents, or preparing for mediation, you may contact one of the housing counseling agencies listed on the attached Notice of Community-Based Resources (form JD-CV-126). However, if you are not able to get help quickly enough, you must do your best to complete the forms and gather the documents yourself. The mediator will give you additional help during the premediation process.

If your spouse is not a borrower on your loan, but you wish to have that person attend mediation with you, you must give your lender your written consent to discuss your loan with your spouse.

Notice to each defendant

- You are being sued. This is a summons in a lawsuit. The complaint attached states the claims the plaintiff is making against you.
- To receive further notices, you or your attorney must file an Appearance (form JD-CL-12) with the clerk at the address above. Generally, it must be filed on or before the second day after the Return Date. The Return Date is not a hearing date. You do not have to come to court on the Return Date unless you receive a separate notice telling you to appear.
- If you or your attorney do not file an Appearance on time, a default judgment may be entered against you. You can get an Appearance form at the court address above, or on-line at <https://jud.ct.gov/webforms/>.
- If you believe that you have insurance that may cover the claim being made against you in this lawsuit, you should immediately contact your insurance representative. Other actions you may take are described in the Connecticut Practice Book, which may be found in a superior court law library or on-line at <https://www.jud.ct.gov/pb.htm>.
- If you have questions about the summons and complaint, you should talk to an attorney.
